“Blinkered”

Presented & Produced By Derry-based Sole Purpose Productions

An Irish Play takes a look at the impact of depression & suicide

Monday, January 21st 2019

Doors Open 6.30PM

Play Starts at 7PM

$20

Speaking about the play, writer Patricia Byrne, explained:

“When I was writing Blinkered, I had to get inside the head of this young man who is contemplating suicide and struggling with depression. But I also had to get into the heads of the people around him – his mother, his father, his sister. This play carries the message that we can say the word suicide, that we can have these conversations. We don’t have to keep quiet.”

The play is directed by Shauna Kelpie and the highly talented cast includes:

Patrick McBrearty (Three Sisters The Lyric), Cathy Brennan Bradley (The Lantern Man by Jane Coyle), Pat Lynch (Over The Wire The Playhouse) and Gemma Walker (The Makey Uppers).

Chaired By: Aileen Scott
